Leadership as Practiced and Shared in the Parish

Leadership and empowerment are key concepts to development thought. Both serve as mechanisms for effecting efficacy at individual, communal and institutional levels. Let us re-examine the concept of leadership, in particular, and its application in many aspects of our human life.

Leadership is a mechanism by which we can transform individual resources we have into the collective power we need to get what we want (our parish goals). We started exploring some processes through education, formation, access to material resources hoping for communal change. Change in the parish structure is assumed to be the result of personal change. Moreover, a better parish community would affect individual's psychological and spiritual well-being. Thus, individual or personal change and structural change are intimately related.

Looking back, we exercised leadership through five interdependent practices, namely:

Relationship Building: We set up a Ministry Fair to recruit individual participants by building relationships with them. We are in the process of mobilizing individual participants to join our ministries through transactions of resources and requiring commitment to future engagement. Collective capacity can be built, in turn, from the trust, learning and solidarity growing out of the formation of shared interests, resources and the commitment to use them.

Narrative: We invited some resource persons to cultivate emotional resources embedded in shared values. They shared with us their life stories necessary to confront the challenges with courage, resilience, hope and agency. They motivated us to act on our programs to success.

Strategy: While stories draw on one's emotional resources for the exercise of agency, strategizing draws more heavily on one's cognitive resources for the analytic, imaginative, and adaptive capacity to figure out how to respond to the challenges with intentionality. Given the abundance of resources like talent, treasure and time, we, as leaders, must find ways to compensate with greater resourcefulness. Moreover, our strategic capacity to respond to the situation must be widely distributed rather than concentrated in the hands of a few that would result in an incapacity to respond with strategic information, intentionality and creativity.

Structure: Well-designed, interdependent leadership teams are one way to avoid lack of structure on the one hand, and the fragility and narrowness of a relying on single person (the pastor) who holds all authority on the other. We categorized our more than 53 different ministries into seven committees and regularly meet every Monday that would further the decision making process, accountability and coordination.

Action: To transform our individual resources into collective power, it is not enough to build relationship, tell stories, devise strategy and enact structure. Resources like time, talent and treasure must first be mobilized to a common effort and then deployed through diverse tactics. Since our ministries are voluntary in nature, we need to secure sustained commitment of these resources while asking each of us, participants, to take actions.

Taken together, we hope these five practices would offer a concrete and useful way to study and carry out the essential work that leadership does in our parish.

God bless,

Fr. Rolyn B. Francisco

El liderazgo como se practica y comparte en la parroquia

El liderazgo y el fortalecimiento son conceptos clave para el desarrollo del pensamiento. Ambos sirven como mecanismos para efectuar efectividad a nivel individual, comunal e institucional. Volvamos a examinar el concepto del liderazgo en particular, y su aplicación en varios aspectos de nuestra vida humana.

El liderazgo es un mecanismo por el cual podemos transformar los recursos individuales que tenemos, en el poder colectivo que necesitamos para obtener lo que queremos (nuestras metas como parroquia). Comenzamos a explorar algunos procesos a través de la educación, la formación, y el acceso a recursos materiales en espera de un cambio comunal. El cambio en la estructura de la parroquia es un supuesto resultado de un cambio personal. Además, una mejor comunidad parroquial afecta el bienestar espiritual y psicológico de un individuo. De este modo, existe una relación directa entre el cambio individual, o personal, y el cambio estructural.

En retrospectiva, hemos puesto en práctica el liderazgo a través de cinco prácticas interdependientes, específicamente en:

La edificación de lazos de relación - montamos la Feria de Ministerios para reclutar participantes individuales edificando una relación con cada uno de ellos. Estamos en proceso de movilizar participantes individuales a unirse a nuestros ministerios a través de la transacción de recursos y requiriendo dedicación para que haya un compromiso futuro. La capacidad colectiva puede edificarse, en cambio, a través de la confianza, del aprendizaje, y de la solidaridad que crecen de la formación de los intereses compartidos, los recursos, y el compromiso para ponerlos en práctica.

La narrativa - hemos invitado a algunas personas de recurso a cultivar recursos emocionales enclavados en valores compartidos. Ellos han compartido con nosotros las historias de sus vidas, necesarias para confrontar los retos con valor, resiliencia, esperanza y voluntad. Nos han motivado a actuar en nuestros programas hacia el éxito.

La estratégica - mientras las historias sacan de los recursos emocionales de cada individuo para el ejercicio de la voluntad, la estratégica saca más de los recursos de conocimiento de uno para la capacidad analítica, imaginativa y de adaptación para poder entender cómo responder a los retos con intención. Dada la abundancia de recursos, como el talento, el tesoro, y el tiempo, nosotros, como líderes, debemos encontrar maneras para compensar con una capacidad mayor con más ingenio. Además, nuestra capacidad estratégica para responder a una situación debe ser distribuida ampliamente y no concentrada en las manos de pocos, lo que resultaría en una discapacidad para responder con información estratégica, intención y creatividad.

La estructura - los equipos de liderazgo interdependientes y bien diseñados son una forma de evitar la falta de estructura por un lado, y por otro, la vulnerabilidad y limitación de depender de una sola persona (el pastor) quien tiene toda la autoridad. Hemos categorizado nuestros más de 53 diferentes ministerios en siete comités, y nos juntamos con regularidad cada lunes, promoviendo el proceso de la toma de decisiones, la responsabilidad, y la coordinación.

La acción - ésta transforma nuestros recursos individuales en un poder colectivo. No es suficiente edificar relaciones, contar historias, divisar estrategias, y promulgar estructura. Los recursos de tiempo, talento y tesoro deben primero mobilizarse hacia un esfuerzo común y después implementarse a través de diversas tácticas. Ya que nuestros ministerios son voluntarios por naturaleza, necesitamos asegurar un compromiso constante de estos recursos mientras pedimos a todos nosotros, los participantes, tomar acción.

Implementando juntos estas cinco prácticas, esperamos que ofrezcan una manera concreta y útil para estudiar y llevar a cabo el trabajo esencial que hace el liderazgo en nuestra parroquia.

Dios les bendiga,

P. Rolyn B. Francisco

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard,
What God has ready for those who love Him;
Spirit of love, come give us the mind of Jesus,
Teach us the wisdom of God.

When pain and sorrow weigh us down, be near to us O Lord, Forgive the weakness of our faith, and bear us up within Your peaceful word.

Our lives are but a single breath, we flower and we fade,
Yet all our days are in Your hands, so we return in love what love has made.

To those who see with eyes of faith, the Lord is ever near,
Reflected in the faces, of all the poor and lowly of the world.

We sing a myst'ry from the past, in halls where saints have trod,
Yet ever near the music rings, to Jesus, Living Song of God.

MORE THAN GOLD

Tom Booth ©1987 OCP

Lord, I love Your commands, more than gold is Your word, so precious to me.

I have said, O Lord, that my part is in the keeping of Your word.
The law of Your mouth is more precious to me,
Than thousands of pieces of gold, than thousands of pieces of gold.

Let Your kindness comfort me, according to Your word.
Let Your compassion give life to my soul,
For Your law is my delight, for Your law is my delight.

For I love Your commands
more than gold, however fine,
For in Your precepts I will go forth.
Every false way I hate, every false way I hate.

TRUST IN YOU

Letting go of every single dream, I lay each one down at Your feet
Every moment of my wandering, never changes what You see

I've tried to win this war I confess, my hands are weary I need Your rest
Mighty Warrior, King of the fight, no matter what I face, You're by my side

When You don't move the mountains I'm needing You to move
When You don't part the waters I wish I could walk through
When You don't give the answers as I cry out to You
I will trust, I will trust, I will trust in You!

Truth is, You know what tomorrow brings, there's not a day ahead You have not seen
So, in all things be my life and breath, I want what You want Lord and nothing less

*You are my strength and comfort, You are my steady hand
You are my firm foundation; the rock on which I stand
Your ways are always higher, Your plans are always good There's not a place where I'll go, You've not already stood*
