Message from Bishop Olmsted

Dear Fr. Rolyn,

Thank you for a wonderful celebration of the Feast of Christ the King. I enjoyed every part of the evening, including the opportunity to see the new statue of St. Peregrine and meet the artist who created it. Thank you too for your 2016-2017 Annual Parish Newsletter. It is well done — informative, challenging, inspiring and beautiful. I trust that it will draw people into a deeper sense of unity and commitment to the mission of Christ in the world today.

Grace and peace in the Lord Jesus,

Bishop Olmsted

Advent Mission

2017 Advent Tour; “To Save Us All.”

A special evening of fellowship, music and prayer prepared for you and your family this Advent season.

December 16 at 6:30 pm, in the church. Come and participate in the season.

The Vigil Project is pleased to announce its 2017 Advent tour. Titled “To Save Us All”, it will feature the artists and musicians of The VIGIL Project band with a program of music and speaking focused on themes such as the mystery of Jesus’ Incarnation, the struggle of becoming a holy family, and the need to make room in our lives for the coming of Jesus at Christmas.

Eleven inspiring events across the U.S. will span the month of December, while free online resources – videos, music, guide booklet – will aid anyone who wishes to pray deeply into the season of Advent, whether or not you are able to attend a live event. We look forward to meeting, sharing, and praying with communities, families, and individuals all over the U.S. this Advent season.

ADORATION

Truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, Jesus waits for us in Adoration. Let Him give you His peace as He loves you during your hour!

We need 2 Adorers: Sundays 11pm—12am
Please check the sign in the Shrine lobby and in the Parish Office for “yellow” times that we need one more Adorer.

Do you have one hour once a week that you can be on call to sub for a scheduled Adorer? If you would like to be a scheduled weekly Adorer, a substitute Adorer, or have an Adoration question, please email Anne and Jack at adoration@ctk-catholic.org

HAND CARVED in BETHLEHEM

PLEASE STOP BY THE TABLES OF RELIGIOUS WARES (Nativity set, rosaries, statues, crucifixes, charms, etc.) AFTER ALL THE MASSES THE WEEK END OF December 9&10.

Ayman Khair representing about 180 Christian families from Bethlehem. These families have been dependent upon sales of their hand carved religious articles to tourists of the Holy Land. Due to the conflict in the Middle East, the tourism has been cut off. In order to survive, they have turned to Christian communities in the United States to purchase their articles.

These hand carved religious articles are beyond description. Carved from wood of the sacred Olive tree, this workmanship has been traditional for these families for hundreds of years. It is hoped that through the efforts of Mr. Khair that these families have a little income and are able to stay living in the Holy Land.

Amazingly enough, The Christians population dropped from 22% to less than 2% in the last 30 years. Thank you in advance for your support.

We are all stewards, managers of the many gifts God has bestowed on us.

Feast of
Our Lady of Guadalupe
December 12

In Advent of 1531, an Aztec peasant named Juan Diego saw an astounding sight—a radiant woman clothed with the sun, and the moon at her feet. She bore the appearance of a Central American Native, and she was dressed in native garb. She even wore the traditional sash of a pregnant woman. This was a paradoxical image, for at the time when the Lady of Guadalupe manifested herself, the Native people were deeply oppressed by their Spanish conquerors. The woman spoke to Juan Diego tenderly, calling him her beloved son. The peasant went to his bishop, but the bishop did not think it possible that the Queen of Heaven would appear to a poor man on a barren hillside. As a sign of her presence for the skeptical bishop, the Lady left her glorious image on Juan Diego's cloak of agave cactus fabric. At her request, a church was built at the site where she had appeared in what is now Mexico City. Pilgrims come from many nations to honor her there, especially on her feast day, December 12. The oppressed native people recognized Our Lady of Guadalupe as a promise of justice and a cause for hope. Peace treaties have been signed in the basilica that bears her name. She is the patron saint of Mexico, and she is honored throughout the Americas.

O COME DIVINE MESSIAH

M. l'abbé (Simon-Joseph) Pellegrin, Translated by Sister Mary of St. Philip Adapted by Jarrod Townsend

O come, divine Messiah! The world in silence waits the day
When hope shall sing its triumph, and sadness flee away.

Sweet Savior haste; come, come to earth,
Dispel the night and show thy face, and bid us hail the dawn of grace.
O come, divine Messiah! The world in silence waits the day
When hope shall sing its triumph, and sadness flee away.

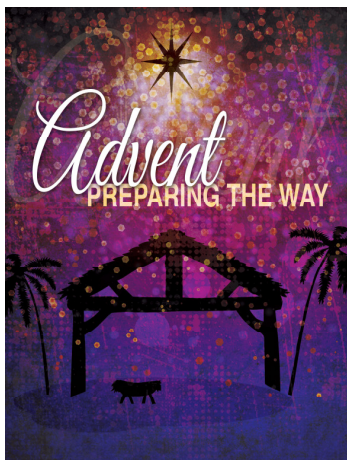

You'll come in peace and meekness, And lowly will your cradle be;
All veiled in human weakness thy majesty we'll see.

O Thou, whom nations sigh for, whom seer and prophet long foretold,
Wilt break the captive fetters; redeem the long-lost fold.

WAIT FOR THE LORD

Jacques Berthier ©1984 GIA

Wait for the Lord, whose day is near Wait for the Lord: be strong, take heart!

EVERLASTING GOD

*Brenton Brown, Ken Riley © 2005 Thankyou Music
(Admin. by EMI Christian Music Publishing)*

Strength will rise as we wait upon the Lord,
we will wait upon the Lord,
we will wait upon the Lord.
Strength will rise as we wait upon the Lord,
we will wait upon the Lord,
we will wait upon the Lord

*Our God You reign forever.
Our hope Our strong Deliverer.*

You do not faint, You won't grow weary.
You're the defender of the weak,
You comfort those in need
You lift us up on wings like eagles.

Your people's everlasting light,
O Christ, Redeemer of us all,
We pray you hear us when we call.
In sorrow that the ancient curse,
Should doom to death a universe,
You came, O Savior, to set free
Your own in glorious liberty.

Let the skies shine forth and show your love;
let Your Spirit descend like dew from above.
The heavens glow, as they declare the glory of Your light,
Creator of the stars of night. Creator of the stars of night.

When this old world drew on t'ward night,
You came; but not in splendor bright,
Not as a monarch, but the child
Of Mary, blameless mother mild.
At your great Name, O Jesus, now
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow:
All things on earth with one accord,
Like those in heav'n, shall call you Lord.

Come in your holy might, we pray,
Redeem us for eternal day;
Defend us while we dwell below
From all assaults of our dread foe.
To God Creator, God the Son,
And God the Spirit Three in One,
Praise, honor, might, and glory be
From age to age eternally.
