Forming Families for Discipleship:

This past summer as many changes came about in the religious education staff and program, one of the first topics we discussed was evangelizing not only the student, but the family as a whole. We understand the importance of forming young people as disciples of Christ, yet how much greater would it be to have families being strengthened as the primary evangelists and catechists through intentional, Christ centered relationships.

Involving Families in Catechesis: The family is central to our Catholic faith:

As much as we would like to receive credit, this is not a new idea since, the catechism, states, the Church sees “the family as the first natural society.” (p211) In fact, the theme of “family” is found throughout Sacred Scripture as, “God reveals himself as a “family” — Father, Son and Holy Spirit — a communion of persons. God created us, male and female, in His image and likeness (Gn 1:26-27; CCC p2205). We are created to be in communion with one another. Jesus reveals God as a Father who loves and cares for his children. The Church is revealed to us as a family into which we are adopted by God and become brothers and sisters to one another (Gal 4:4-5). Jesus’ relationship with the Church is presented in Scripture as a marriage, with Jesus as the groom and the Church His Bride.

Family-Adult Formation:

The family has a privileged place in catechesis. The Catechism states that “parents receive the responsibility of evangelizing their children” and calls them the “First heralds” of the faith (p2225). The family is called “domestic church” — the church of the home. Yet, we the religious education staff understand many of the challenges our families are facing and want to assist families.

In addition, to our regular religious education classes, sacrament prep classes, EDGE and Life Teen Youth Ministries, we are currently offering classes to parents and caregivers twice a week in both English and Spanish at no cost to the family. Already we are hearing about the healing that is taking place within our families through these classes.

Pope John Paul II famously said, “As the family goes, so goes society, and so goes the world in which we live.” We could just as easily say, “As the family goes, so goes the parish, and so goes the Church in which we live,” for our parishes are made up of families, and every child with a vocation to the priesthood and religious life is born within a family. For this reason, Pope Benedict has said, “The family...is the cradle of life and of every vocation” (Angelus talk, Feb. 4, 2007). Let us renew our commitment to place families at the center of our catechetical efforts.

In Christ,

Elisa Chavez

Formando a las familias para el discipulado:

Este pasado verano, mientras vimos muchos cambios en el programa y el personal de catecismo, uno de los primeros temas que tocamos fue la evangelización no sólo de los estudiantes, sino de la familia entera. Entendemos la importancia de formar a los jóvenes como discípulos de Cristo, pero cuánto más increíble sería fortalecer a las familias a través de relaciones intencionales y centradas en Cristo, siendo ellas los principales evangelizadores y catequistas.

Involucrando a las familias en Catecismo: La familia es central en nuestra fe católica:

Nos encantaría recibir el mérito, pero ésta no es una idea nueva, ya que el Catecismo indica que la Iglesia ve a “la familia como la primera sociedad natural.” (p211) De hecho, el tema de “familia” se encuentra a lo largo de las Sagradas Escrituras, pues, “Dios se revela Él mismo como una “familia” — Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo — una comunión de personas. Dios nos creó, hombre y mujer, en Su imagen (Gen 1:26-27; CCC p2205). Fuimos creados para estar en comunión unos con otros. Jesús revela a Dios como un Padre que ama y se preocupa por sus hijos. Se nos revela que la Iglesia es la familia en la cual somos adoptados por Dios y todos nos convertimos en hermanos y hermanas (Gal 4:4-5). La relación de Jesús con la Iglesia es presentada en las Escrituras como un matrimonio, con Jesús como el novio y la Iglesia su novia.

Formación para familias y adultos:

La familia tiene un lugar privilegiado en la catequesis. El Catecismo indica que “los padres reciben la responsabilidad de evangelizar a sus hijos” y los llama los “primeros heraldos” de la fe (p2225). La familia es referida como “la iglesia doméstica” — la iglesia del hogar. Aún así, nosotros, el personal de catecismo entendemos muchos de los retos que las familias enfrentan y queremos ayudar a las familias.

Adicionalmente, actualmente estamos ofreciendo clases a los padres y tutores de nuestras clases de catecismo y preparación sacramental, y los ministerios de jóvenes EDGE y Life Teen, dos veces a la semana en inglés y en español sin costo para la familia. Ya hemos estado escuchando de la sanación que está ocurriendo dentro de las familias a través de estas clases.

Es bien sabido que San Juan Pablo II dijo: “Como anda la familia, así anda la sociedad, y el mundo en el que vivimos.” Podríamos también fácilmente decir: “Como anda la familia, así anda la parroquia, y la Iglesia en que vivimos,” pues nuestras parroquias están formadas de familias, y cada persona con vocación para el sacerdocio y la vida religiosa nace dentro de una familia. Por esta razón, el Papa Benedicto ha dicho: “La familia...es la cuna de la vida y de cada vocación” (Angelus talk, Feb. 4, 2007). Renovemos nuestro compromiso de colocar a las familias en el centro de nuestros esfuerzos catequéticos.

En Cristo,

Elisa Chavez

Facilitadora de Sacramentos para secundaria y preparatoria y Ministro de jóvenes
Iglesia Católica Cristo Rey

O come all you who labor in sorrow and in pain;
Come eat this bread from heaven; your peace and strength regain.

TRUST IN YOU

Lauren Daigle, Michael Farren, Paul Mabury © 2015

Letting go of every single dream, I lay each one down at Your feet
Every moment of my wandering, never changes what You see

I've tried to win this war I confess, my hands are weary I need Your rest
Mighty Warrior, King of the fight, no matter what I face, You're by my side

When You don't move the mountains I'm needing You to move
When You don't part the waters I wish I could walk through
When You don't give the answers as I cry out to You
I will trust, I will trust, I will trust in You!

Truth is, You know what tomorrow brings, there's not a day ahead You have not seen
So, in all things be my life and breath, I want what You want Lord and nothing less

*You are my strength and comfort, You are my steady hand
You are my firm foundation; the rock on which I stand
Your ways are always higher, Your plans are always good
There's not a place where I'll go, You've not already stood*

IN THE LIGHT OF THE LORD

Michael John Poirier © 1989 Peartree

In the light of the Lord
We are one, we are children
In the light of the Lord,
We are one, we are one,
We are one, we are one.

In the light of the Lord,
We are strong in our weakness.
In the light of the Lord,
We are strong, . . .

In the light of the Lord,
We are healed of our blindness
In the light of the Lord,
We are healed . . .

In the light of the Lord,
We give praise for His mercy.
In the light of the Lord,
We give praise . . .

In the light of the Lord,
We belong, we are chosen.
In the light of the Lord,
We belong, . . .
