Happy New Year!

As we welcome the New Year, we honor the Blessed Virgin Mary who is the Mother of God, Jesus Christ. We honor her because without her “yes” or without her Fiat to God, Jesus would not be born into this world. Our salvation would still be in doom or like a dream.

It has been customary that we celebrate the passing of the old year and the coming of the new. Before midnight strikes, the celebration is marked by noise-making, drunkenness and disorderly behavior. The celebration might be a re-enactment of the primordial chaos that enveloped the world before creation. As the first day of the New Year dawns, the celebration is very different. It is marked by calmness, sobriety, and orderly behavior.

Humanity re-enacts creation, the triumph of order over chaos.

Today is also a time of the year that we look back at the year that was just ended and to look forward to the New Year ahead of us. Most likely this is the reason why this first month of the year is called January. The name “January” comes from the Roman god “Janus,” the god with two faces. One face looks to the past and the other looks to the future. A review of the past year naturally leads to setting goals and resolutions for the New Year. With God’s grace, a new being or new order comes to life.

Like our Blessed Mother, Virgin Mary, we may never forget to make an effort in order to cooperate with the grace of God. God speaks to us today as He spoke to the Blessed Mother. Whatever the situation in which we find ourselves, a hardship, a disappointment, a decision to make, we may have time to listen to what He has to say to us, to treasure His word and ponder it in our hearts. Then shall we be able to realize our goal of a new life in union with Him.

God bless and a HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL!

In this 8-session program,
Catholics learn...

- The Catholic teaching on salvation
- How to explain salvation to non-Christians
- What is required for salvation—faith or works
- What Paul really means by “works” not leading to salvation
- How Christ’s death changed our relationship with God
- The meaning of the difficult passages in Romans
- How we can enter more deeply into Christ

“in this lavishly illustrated and attractive study, Swafford and Cavins present Catholics with a study that is both profound yet accessible—based on the best contemporary scholarship and faithful to the Church’s tradition. I’ve seldom seen Catholic bible study materials this good!”

¡Feliz Año Nuevo !

Al dar la bienvenida al Año Nuevo, honramos a la Santísima Virgen María, que es la Madre de Dios, Jesucristo. La honramos porque sin su “sí” o sin su Fiat ante Dios, Jesús no hubiera nacido en este mundo. Nuestra salvación aún estaría condenada o como un sueño. Es costumbre que celebremos el paso del año viejo y la llegada del nuevo. Antes que llegue la medianoche, la celebración está marcada por el ruido, la embriaguez y el comportamiento desordenado. La celebración podría ser una recreación del caos primordial que envolvió el mundo antes de la creación. A medida que amanece el primer día del Año Nuevo, la celebración es muy diferente. Está marcado por la calma, la sobriedad y el comportamiento ordenado. La humanidad recrea la creación, el triunfo del orden sobre el caos. Es costumbre que celebremos el paso del año viejo y la llegada del nuevo.

Hoy también es una época del año en la que recordamos el año que acaba de terminar y esperamos el Año Nuevo que nos espera. Lo más probable es que esta sea la razón por la cual este primer mes del año se llama enero. El nombre “enero” proviene del dios romano “Janus,” el dios con dos caras. Una cara mira al pasado y la otra mira al futuro. Una revisión del año pasado naturalmente lleva a establecer metas y resoluciones para el año nuevo. Con la gracia de Dios, un nuevo ser o un nuevo orden cobran vida.

Al igual que nuestra santísima Madre, la Virgen María, es posible que nunca olvidemos hacer un esfuerzo para cooperar con la gracia de Dios. Dios nos habla hoy como le habló a la Santísima Madre. Cualquiera que sea la situación en la que nos encontremos, una dificultad, una desilusión una decisión que tomar, podemos tener tiempo para escuchar lo que tiene que decirnos, para atesorar Su Palabra y reflexionar en nuestros corazones. Entonces podremos realizar nuestra meta de una nueva vida en unión con Él.

Dios los bendiga y ¡FELIZ AÑO NUEVO A TODOS!

"Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." (Matthew 2:11)

The image of the Magi kneeling before the infant Jesus and opening their treasure chests for Him is an image that we should all try to follow each day. In gratitude for all that we have been given, we are called to generously share all of our gifts, not just the ones we pick and choose. God wants us to be generous with everything, but especially that one thing that means the most to us.

"Entonces abrieron sus tesoros y le ofrecieron regalos de oro, incienso y mirra". (MATEO 2:11)

La imagen de los Reyes Magos arrodillándose ante el niño Jesús y abriendo sus cofres del tesoro para Él es una imagen que todos debemos tratar de seguir cada día. En agradecimiento por todo lo que se nos ha dado, estamos llamados a compartir generosamente todos nuestros regalos, no solo los que elegimos. Dios quiere que seamos generosos con todo, pero especialmente con lo que más significa para ti.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray. And do thou, oh Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestra protección en contra de las maldades y asechanzas del demonio. Que Dios le reprima, pedimos suplicantes, y tú, Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial, por el Poder de Dios, arroja al infierno a Satanás y a los demás espíritus malignos que vagan por el mundo buscando la perdición de las almas.
Amén.

We Three Kings

John Hopkins

We three kings of Orient are; bearing gifts we traverse afar, field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star.

O star of wonder, star of light, star with royal beauty bright, westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light.

Born a King on Bethlehem's plain, gold I bring to crown him again,
King forever, ceasing never, over us all to reign.

Frankincense to offer have I; incense owns a Deity nigh;
prayer and praising, voices raising, worshiping God on high.

Myrrh is mine; its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom;
sorrowing, sighing, bleeding, dying, sealed in the stone-cold tomb.

Glorious now behold him arise; King and God and sacrifice:
Alleluia, Alleluia, sounds through the earth and skies.

ACT OF FAITH DURING COMMUNION Lord Jesus Christ, I firmly believe that you are present in this Blessed Sacrament as true God and true Man, with your Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. My Redeemer and my Judge, I adore your Divine Majesty together with the angels and saints. I believe, O Lord; increase my faith.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON . Cf. Mt 2: 2

We have seen his star in the East, and have come with gifts to adore the Lord.

The First Noel

Traditional

The first Noel, the angels did say,
was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay.
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep
on a cold winter's night that was so deep.

Noel, noel, noel, noel. Born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw the star,
shining in the east beyond them far.
And to the earth it gave great light
and so it continued both day and night.

And by the light of that same star,
three Wise Men came from country far.
To seek for a King was their intent,
and to follow the star wherever it went.

What Child Is This

Greensleeves/William C. Dix/Arr. Sir John Stainer

What child is this who laid to rest,
on Mary's lap is sleeping?
Whom angels greet with anthems sweet,
while shepherds watch are keeping?

This, this is Christ the King,
whom shepherds guard and angels sing;
Haste, haste, to bring Him laud,
the babe the son of Mary.

Why lies He in such mean estate,
where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christian, fear, for sinners here
the silent Word is pleading.

Nails, spear shall pierce him through the cross be borne for me for you:
Hail, hail, the Word made flesh,
the babe the son of Mary.

So bring Him incense, gold, and myrrh,
come peasant, king to own Him;
The King of Kings salvation brings,
let loving hearts enthrone Him.

Raise, raise, the song on high,
the Virgin sings her lullaby;
Joy, Joy, for Christ is born,
the babe, the son of Mary.

In The Bleak Midwinter

Christina G. Rossetti, Gustav Holst

In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, softly, snow on snow,
In the bleak midwinter, long ago.

Our God, heaven cannot hold him, nor earth sustain;
Heaven and earth shall flee away when he comes to reign.
In the bleak midwinter a stable place sufficed
For the Lord Almighty, Jesus Christ.

What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
If I were a Wise Man, I would do my part;
Yet what I can I give him: give him my heart.

He Shall Reign Forevermore

Chris Tomlin and Matt Maher © 2015 S. D. G. Publishing, Sixsteps Songs, Worship Together Music, Be Essential Songs, I Am A Pilgrim Songs

In the bleak midwinter, all creation groans.
And for a world in darkness, frozen like a stone
Light is breaking, in a stable for a throne

And He shall reign, forevermore, forevermore
And He shall reign, forevermore, forevermore
Unto us a Child is born, the King of kings and Lord of lords

And He shall reign, forevermore, forevermore

If I were a wise man, I would travel far.
And if I were a shepherd, I would do my part
But, poor as I am, I will give to Him my heart

*Here within a manger lies,
the One who made the starry skies
This baby born for sacrifice,
Christ the Messiah
Into our hopes, into our fears,
the Savior of the world appears
The promise of eternal years,
Christ the Messiah*

And He shall reign, forevermore, forevermore
And He shall reign, forevermore, forevermore
