AROUND THE DIOCESE

Respect Life Speaker Series Presents: Nik Nikas

Nik will be presenting on the topic of end of life decisions from a Catholic perspective. In making end of life decisions in our secular culture, one needs to avoid two extremes, pushing people to death too soon and prolonging life beyond any moral duty to do so.

Learn when medical interventions are morally required and when they are not. Learn about the moral boundaries surrounding nutrition and hydration. Hear the church's ancient wisdom on preparing spiritually for the end of life and not just medically. Learn about what the Church teaches about brain death, organ donation and about cremation and regular burial.
