HABEMUS PAPAM

POPE LEO XIV

PAPA LEÓN XIV

O God, who chose your servant Pope Leo XIV in succession to the Apostle Peter as shepherd of the whole flock, look favorably on the supplications of your people and grant that, as Vicar of Christ on earth, he may confirm his brethren and that the whole Church may be in communion with him in the bond of unity, love and peace, so that in you, the shepherd of souls, all may know the truth and attain life eternal. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

-Roman Missal

Dios nuestro, que, a fin de suceder al apóstol Pedro, elegiste a tu siervo Papa León XIV, para que fuera el pastor de todo tu rebaño, mira con bondad al pueblo que te suplica, para que, quien hace las veces de Cristo en la tierra, confirme en la fe a sus hermanos; y haz que toda la Iglesia viva en comunión con él, por el vínculo de la unidad, del amor y de la paz, a fin de que todos encuentren en ti, Pastor de las almas, la verdad y la vida eterna. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.

Acting Person

I would like to share a "little look" into my book, Karol Wojtyla's ACTING PERSON in Philippine Contexts.

I want to share some examples of meeting and overcoming challenges through participation.

Participation is a natural consequence of our nature as social being. No man is an island, as the saying goes. We live and interact with each other.

Moreover, when interacting, we are able to share in the life and action of others, thus realizing ourselves (sense of fulfillment) and the common good.

"Life is a journey, not a destination." When I was called to start a new parish at Dona Juana subdivision, I didn't realize that it was an all-squatter community with more than 25,000 households. I reported on May 1st, Feast of St. Joseph, their patron saint. That month was the beginning of the rainy season. When it rained, I had to collect containers to catch the rainwater dripping down both in the rectory and in the church. The church had a provisional concrete roof and cement for the second floor. And, it had no glass windows. But, it was better than the shanties and houses made of recycled metal sheets. These were low material houses in the area.

As I started my ministry there, I was treated like a judge to settle land disputes. Sometimes, their fights became so nasty that they led to killing. How could we build a community if the residents were divided over land? I decided to take up doctoral studies in public administration to help me understand the problem and the government program. My doctoral dissertation was about slum upgrading through individual land titling. After a long protracted battle, the household beneficiaries got their individual land titles which made them free from eviction, demolition and relocation.

I served the community for a period of 10 years. Within that period, we were able to build the church, the parish hall, rectory, parochial school, a multi-purpose cooperative and individual land titles to some 25,000 household beneficiaries.

I was transferred to another assignment, an almost forgotten chapel that became a parish church in a relocation area for displaced families. I was their second pastor. One early Saturday morning, I was told that a colony of informal settlers, who were temporarily staged in the area, lost their shanties to fire. I visited the affected area and was moved to see the families trying to recover anything that they could sell to the junk yard to feed themselves for the day. I organized them and envisioned to rebuild their houses.

Persona que Actúa

Me gustaría compartir una breve mirada a mi libro, "Persona que actúa en contextos filipinos" de Karol Wojtyla.

Quiero compartir algunos ejemplos de cómo afrontar y superar desafíos a través de la participación. La participación es una consecuencia natural de nuestra naturaleza como seres sociales. Nadie es una isla, como dice el dicho. Vivimos e interactuamos unos con otros. Además, al interactuar, podemos compartir la vida y la acción de los demás, realizándonos así a nosotros mismos (sentido de plenitud) y al bien común.

"La vida es un viaje, no un destino". Cuando me llamaron para fundar una nueva parroquia en la urbanización Dona Juana, no me di cuenta de que era una comunidad de ocupantes ilegales con más de 25.000 hogares. Informé el 1 de mayo, festividad de San José, su santo patrón. Ese mes era el comienzo de la temporada de lluvias. Cuando llovía, tenía que recoger recipientes para recoger el agua de lluvia que goteaba tanto en la rectoría como en la iglesia. La iglesia tenía un techo provisional de hormigón y cemento para el segundo piso. Además, no tenía ventanas de cristal. Pero era mejor que las chabolas y casas de chapa reciclada. Estas eran casas de materiales de baja calidad en la zona.

Al comenzar mi ministerio allí, me trataban como a un juez para resolver disputas de tierras. A veces, las peleas se volvían tan acaloradas que terminaban en asesinatos. ¿Cómo podríamos construir una comunidad si los residentes estaban divididos por la tierra? Decidí cursar un doctorado en administración pública para comprender el problema y el programa gubernamental. Mi tesis doctoral trataba sobre la mejora de barrios marginales mediante la titulación individual de tierras. Tras una larga batalla, las familias beneficiarias obtuvieron sus títulos de propiedad individuales, lo que las libró del desalojo, la demolición y la reubicación.

Serví a la comunidad durante 10 años. En ese período, pudimos construir la iglesia, el salón parroquial, la rectoría, la escuela parroquial, una cooperativa multiusos y la titulación individual de tierras para unas 25.000 familias beneficiarias.

Me transfirieron a otra asignación: una capilla casi olvidada que se convirtió en una iglesia parroquial en una zona de reubicación para familias desplazadas. Fui su segundo párroco. Un sábado por la mañana temprano, me informaron que una colonia de colonos informales, que se encontraban temporalmente en la zona, perdió sus chabolas en un incendio. Visité la zona afectada y me conmovió ver a las familias

But, they had no money to start with except having an organized community. With our leadership team, we reached out to the local leaders and non-government organization. When the housing project started, all the beneficiaries participated. No one was too old or too young not to participate. Our slogan was, "No work, no house." Their labor was their payment. And, "Do your best because the house you are working on might be your house."

We started without money in all these projects. We had our vision. Friends and benefactors, both coming from the private and public sectors, shared our vision. Because it was inherent in every person to participate and to work for the common good, we were able to navigate through an environment marked by cultural, political, economic and social differences. And, we achieved our goal and even more than what we hoped for – a dignified life and a community.

Thanks be to God, whose generosity is revealed through the generosity of others.

God bless, Fr. Rolyn

P.S. Copies of my book are available at the parish office. Part of the proceeds will support our Harmony and Beauty CTK 1551!

intentando recuperar cualquier cosa que pudieran vender al desguace para alimentarse durante el día. Los organicé y me imaginé la reconstrucción de sus casas. Pero no tenían dinero para empezar, salvo tener una comunidad organizada. Con nuestro equipo de liderazgo, contactamos a los líderes locales y a organizaciones no gubernamentales. Cuando comenzó el proyecto de vivienda, todos los beneficiarios participaron. Nadie era demasiado viejo ni demasiado joven para no participar.

Nuestro lema era: "Sin trabajo, no hay casa". Su trabajo era su salario. Y: "Haz lo mejor que puedas porque la casa en la que estás trabajando podría ser tu casa".

Empezamos sin dinero en todos estos proyectos. Teníamos nuestra visión. Amigos y benefactores, tanto del sector privado como del público, compartieron nuestra visión. Gracias a que participar y trabajar por el bien común era inherente a cada persona, pudimos desenvolvernosen un entorno marcado por diferencias culturales, políticas, económicas y sociales. Y logramos nuestra meta e incluso más de lo que esperábamos: una vida digna y una comunidad.

Gracias a Dios, cuya generosidad se revela en la generosidad de los demás.

Que Dios los bendiga, Padre Rolyn
